Matthew 5:1-3

5:1 Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him. 2 And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying: 3 "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

The Sermon on the Mount is one of the most powerful messages ever given, what's a message that has had a profound impact on your life?

In Sunday's message we examined the wrong interpretations of the Sermon on the Mount, what danger's do you see with interpreting the main point of a passage with "what does this say/mean to me?" How should we seek to interpret and apply the bible?

How is "Blessed are the poor in spirit" counter cultural?

"Happy is the man who is totally dependent on God's grace."
What are some practical ways we can live out this truth on a daily basis?
